For the third annual virtual conference, ISI, partnering with the Zofnass Program at Harvard (ZPH), anticipates another broad-reaching event with critical presentations by today’s sustainable infrastructure leaders.

About the Conference

Participants that join the ISI/ZPH annual virtual conference walk away with a better understanding of the broader landscape of the infrastructure industry today and new ideas for how infrastructure can better serve their communities.

- Reaches an audience of 1000+
- More than 10 hours of presentations and networking opportunities across 2 days.
- Pre-conference courses.
- ENV SPs attend to complete their education hours for the year.
- Delivered virtually.
Who Attends?

- ENV SPs
- City officials
- Thought leaders
- Infrastructure industry professionals (planners, architects, engineers, developers, owners, constructors, operators)
- Public sector agency employees
- Students
- Sustainability and resilience experts and novices alike – anyone with a desire to learn something new!
